Led Motion Message Clock

Product Name: Led Motion Message Clock

Manufacturer: -

Model Number: GIZMO25

This programmable clock can display time, date & messages in mid-air... truly amazing!

The world's most amazing clock. The time, day, date, and your own personalized message magically appear in the air. The LED motion clock allows you to create up to four different messages. Store owners can use it to promote their products or sports fans can show allegiance to their favourite team. Be creative and fascinate your friends! Display the time in different formats, 12 or 24 hours. Display the date in different formats, eg 12-31-2003, 31-12-2003, Dec 31,2003, 31 Dec 2003. Display the day of the week Monday to Sunday. Display your own message. You can create up to four different messages using up to 200 total characters. Cool special effects. The date, day and time may scroll in from the right, left, top or bottom, it changes at random. The words or letters may even come in upside down and then right themselves. Built-in daily & seasonal messages are automatically displayed on the appropriate days throughout the year (e.g. "Merry X-mas" will be displayed on the 25th of December every year).
