The Optrix is a military grade case that is both shock resistant and waterproof. It also has a built in lens that turns your iPhone into a wide angle video camera. The included app unleashes the iPhones ability to shoot full 1080p HD video.

The Optrix XD Case transforms your iPhone 4/4S into a rugged action sports video camera. Bump, bash, crash and splash with your phone safely housed in the polycarbonate shell and rubberized inner iPhone case while still allowing you to utilize the device through the touch membrane. The Optrix is a military grade case that is both shock resistant and waterproof. It also has a built in lens that turns your iPhone into a wide angle video camera. The included app unleashes the iPhones ability to shoot full 1080p HD video. The video looks stunning with the iPhones built in image stabilizer and users have the ability to review, edit and share videos without the need of a computer.

Wide-Angle Lens

Optrix enhances the stunning 1080p HD video of the iPhone by adding an all glass, three element, 175 degree wide-angle lens. Your action sports will look like they were professionally shot with solid hardware.

"The crisp high quality HD video I have collected so far with Optrix is superior to anything I have recorded with a GoPro." - BikeRumor.com

Military Grade

When we think tough we think military grade. Optrix conforms to MIL-STD-810F. Bump, bash, crash, and splash with your phone safely housed in our polycarbonate shell and rubberized inner iPhone sled. Perfect for sports like skiing, biking, skating, motocross, auto-racing and many more.

Military Spec: MIL-STD-810F - Method 516.5 [26 drops onto a steel and concrete base layer], Method 510.4 [Particle resistance], Method 514.5 [Vibration], and Method 512.5 - 2.3.2.5 [Water Immersion]

Waterproof

Optrix is ready to go wherever your adventures take you. From whitewater rafting to splashing in the waves. Keep your phone safe and dry while you get dirty. Optrix is waterproof to a depth of 53cm and conforms to MIL STD 810F 512.5.

Sleds

With Optrix you get the added benefit of a rubberized iPhone sled. Our sled will protect your phone when it's not in our shell so you have peace of mind wherever you go.

Image Stabilization

When you're bombing down a dirt trail or shooting some rapids you will love Apple's built image stabilization on the iPhone 4S. After you shoot action videos on your iPhone you will wonder how you lived with those shaky videos of the past.
