Keyboard Money Boxes

Product Name: Keyboard Money Boxes

Manufacturer: -

Model Number: pgg183

But where do you store your spare shrapnel? In a biscuit tin? Nice idea but a bit old lady-ish. How about under the mattress? Forget that, it's bad for the back. Well there's always the bank. True, but depositing coins over the counter is a bit like wearing a badge saying 'I'm skint'. And trust us, nobody believes you're doing it for your gran. Like Bob Hope used to say: 'A bank is a place that will only lend you money if you can prove you don't need it.' Thankfully, as the advert says, there is another way. And it's terribly modern. Keyboard Money Boxes are stylish little plastic containers crafted to resemble two of computing's most popular keys: the £ key and the SAVE key.
